

PROJECT BRIEF

Project Title	Long-term Impact Assessment of a Rural Development Program in Rajasthan
Function	Analytics, Insights & Impact
Criticality of Project to the Trusts (Specify Details)	This project is of high criticality to the Trusts as it will enable the Trusts in understanding the status and commitment of our long-term grantee towards our social impact programmes in the rural livelihood space. It will enable the Trusts in defining long-term strategy towards their social impact programmes in the rural livelihoods space
No. of interns required for the above project	2
Internship tenure (in months)	6
Internship period	July 2026 to December 2026
Specific requirements of the intern/ institute preference	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Master’s (qualified or pursuing) or PhD (qualified or pursuing) in Development Studies, Sustainable Development, Development Economics, Rural Development, Public Policy, Anthropology, and other relevant social sciences. • TISS, IRMA, TERI, JNU, Azim Premji University, IITs (Development Studies or Economics only), Gokhale Institute, IGIDR, DSE, and other institutes of high reputation from India or abroad.
Reporting Location: (Complete Address)	New Delhi (Travel to rural areas upto 50% of the time for fieldwork whenever required)
Background of the Project	Tata Trusts intends to commission a long-term impact assessment for a grantee that has received continuous support over the past two decades. The study aims to generate evidence of the changes that have occurred within the region, highlighting outcomes attributable to both the financial and non-financial support provided by the Trusts. It will adopt a balanced and critical perspective, incorporate community feedback and offering an objective evaluation of the program’s effectiveness. The findings will play a key role in informing and strengthening future programming efforts at the Trusts.
Key Project Deliverables	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Activities & Deliverable: Field visits, Analysis of quantitative & qualitative data/ info gather through primary & secondary research, Synthesis, Draft & Final Report in Word and Power Point Presentation.