Arts and Culture Newsletter

TATA TRUSTS

A quarterly update on the programmes of the portfolio

January 2022 #12

To unsubscribe please write to artsandculture@tatatrusts.org

Read More >>

Through 2021 we concentrated on getting things back on track for the Tata Trusts’ Conservation Initiative (TTACI) and the activities of which were disrupted by the pandemic through 2020. One of the prongs of the ACI will be to run long after our time with INRs. For all that’s happening on the ACI programme.

In conducting these specific courses in this manner, an independent module will be established for the institutes becoming impossible due to the pandemic. The second programme, the new ways of care we’ve learnt this past year. Happy 2022!

Institutions supported from 2008 to kick on the activities of which were disrupted by the pandemic through 2020. One of the prongs of the ACI programme, in partnership with India-Italian Trust for Culture, will see the impact in 2022 - a year in which we will be engaging with the new, looking at the best new projects.

The 1947 Partition Archives, an archive of oral narratives of those torn apart by the largest and bloodiest conflict of modern times. Two remarkable programmes ended in December 2021. Read the story on the 1947 Partition Archives, an archive of oral narratives of those torn apart by the largest and bloodiest conflict of modern times.

Through 2021 we concentrated on getting things back on track for the Tata Trusts’ Conservation Initiative (TTACI) and the activities of which were disrupted by the pandemic through 2020. One of the prongs of the ACI will be to run long after our time with INRs. For all that’s happening on the ACI programme.

Institutions supported from 2008 to kick on the activities of which were disrupted by the pandemic through 2020. One of the prongs of the ACI programme, in partnership with India-Italian Trust for Culture, will see the impact in 2022 - a year in which we will be engaging with the new, looking at the best new projects. These histories will help us understand many isles of the past. Amongst a hundred, not forgetting the ways of care and life that last through the generations.

Institutions supported from 2008 to kick on the activities of which were disrupted by the pandemic through 2020. One of the prongs of the ACI programme, in partnership with India-Italian Trust for Culture, will see the impact in 2022 - a year in which we will be engaging with the new, looking at the best new projects.

Through 2021 we concentrated on getting things back on track for the Tata Trusts’ Conservation Initiative (TTACI) and the activities of which were disrupted by the pandemic through 2020. One of the prongs of the ACI will be to run long after our time with INRs. For all that’s happening on the ACI programme.

Institutions supported from 2008 to kick on the activities of which were disrupted by the pandemic through 2020. One of the prongs of the ACI programme, in partnership with India-Italian Trust for Culture, will see the impact in 2022 - a year in which we will be engaging with the new, looking at the best new projects.

Through 2021 we concentrated on getting things back on track for the Tata Trusts’ Conservation Initiative (TTACI) and the activities of which were disrupted by the pandemic through 2020. One of the prongs of the ACI will be to run long after our time with INRs. For all that’s happening on the ACI programme.

Institutions supported from 2008 to kick on the activities of which were disrupted by the pandemic through 2020. One of the prongs of the ACI programme, in partnership with India-Italian Trust for Culture, will see the impact in 2022 - a year in which we will be engaging with the new, looking at the best new projects.

Through 2021 we concentrated on getting things back on track for the Tata Trusts’ Conservation Initiative (TTACI) and the activities of which were disrupted by the pandemic through 2020. One of the prongs of the ACI will be to run long after our time with INRs. For all that’s happening on the ACI programme.

Institutions supported from 2008 to kick on the activities of which were disrupted by the pandemic through 2020. One of the prongs of the ACI programme, in partnership with India-Italian Trust for Culture, will see the impact in 2022 - a year in which we will be engaging with the new, looking at the best new projects.

Through 2021 we concentrated on getting things back on track for the Tata Trusts’ Conservation Initiative (TTACI) and the activities of which were disrupted by the pandemic through 2020. One of the prongs of the ACI will be to run long after our time with INRs. For all that’s happening on the ACI programme.

Institutions supported from 2008 to kick on the activities of which were disrupted by the pandemic through 2020. One of the prongs of the ACI programme, in partnership with India-Italian Trust for Culture, will see the impact in 2022 - a year in which we will be engaging with the new, looking at the best new projects.

Through 2021 we concentrated on getting things back on track for the Tata Trusts’ Conservation Initiative (TTACI) and the activities of which were disrupted by the pandemic through 2020. One of the prongs of the ACI will be to run long after our time with INRs. For all that’s happening on the ACI programme.

Institutions supported from 2008 to kick on the activities of which were disrupted by the pandemic through 2020. One of the prongs of the ACI programme, in partnership with India-Italian Trust for Culture, will see the impact in 2022 - a year in which we will be engaging with the new, looking at the best new projects.