

Statement from the Tata Trusts

Mumbai, March 27, 2019: Mr. N. A. Soonawala, who has been a long-standing Trustee of the Sir Dorabji Tata Trust and Sir Ratan Tata Trust for many years, has expressed his desire to retire from these Trusts due to his health and advanced age.

Mr. Soonawala has expressed his gratitude to the Trustees for providing him with the privilege of working with them and the Directors of the Tata group, who have been his colleagues during his long career.

The Trustees acknowledge the significant contribution Mr. Soonawala has made as a Trustee and in the group over the years and respect his desire to step down from the Trusts. Mr. Ratan N. Tata also expressed his personal thanks to Mr. Soonawala for his collegueship over the years and wished him good health in the years ahead.

About the Tata Trusts:

Since inception in 1892, the Tata Trusts, India's oldest philanthropic organization, have played a pioneering role in bringing about an enduring difference in the lives of the communities they serve. Guided by the principles and the vision of proactive philanthropy of the Founder, Jamsetji Tata, the Trusts' purpose is to catalyse development in the areas of healthcare and nutrition, water and sanitation, education, energy, rural upliftment, urban poverty alleviation, and arts, craft and culture. The Trusts' programmes, achieved through direct implementation, partnerships and grant making, are marked by innovations, relevant to the country.
